BOYS ANXIOUS TO HELP DRAFT

School Cadets Hold Enthusiastic Meeting for Registration Aid.

Patriotism, the fourteen to seven-teen year old brand, displayed it-self both enthusiastically and noisily at a meeting of the High School Cadets at McKinley High School Wednesday evening.

"Make every effort possible to be present at this meeting this is a present at this meeting, this is a duty which you owe yourself and your country."

That was the message which had heen sent to the cadets by Assist. Supt. of Schools Stephen E. Krae-mer. The meeting was called to consider the proffered services of the cadets upon registration day.

400 Boys at Meeting. Four hundred boys showed up at the meeting, eager and anxious to their part in facilitating the registra-

The lights went out shortly after the meeting was opened, but far from being nonplussed at this unexpected accident, the boys wasted no time waiting for the lights to come on. They sang every battle hymnn they could think of, all the war songs extant and finally after exhausting all singing material relating to the war. vied with each other in giving their

All the schools were represented almost with their full membership.

"The enthusiasm the boys displayed in answering this call for their bit in answering this call for their bit of service for their country was in-spiring." said Mr. Kraemer. "Every available boy was there eager to be instructed in doing his share except a few who unavoidably could not attend. "The father of one boy attended the meeting explaining that the family lived in Gaithersberg and as the boy was ill he could not attend the meet-since from the fathers explaining their sons' absence at the meeting. One father wrote explaining that his son was out of town, but that he hoped he would get back from his vacation in time to serve on September 12." Employed Boys Let Off. Mr. Kraemer said that of all the boys who would be employed up to the opening of school, most of them declared that their employers were not in the least adverse to letting them off for service on that day.

Another meeting will be held next Monday at McKinley High School at o'clock, to complete arrangements and details for service.

FUNERAL OF CAPT. HUNGERFORD TODAY

DEATH RATE LOW IN LARGER CITIES

August Shows Favorable Comparison with Five-Year Average.

Large cities are healthler places for 38 cities of the United States dublished for the week ended Augest 31, 1918, by the Bureau of the Census. The number of deaths for the week in several cities are given, as well as the average for the cor-desponding week for the last five Years. The figures are rather in-complete, so that precise conclu-sions are not t; be drawn, never-dicless the lesser death rate in the larger cities seems positive.

Chicago has a death list of 491 as compared with the five-year average of 613. New York runs 1,062 compared with an average of 1,255. Boston compares the recent 192 favorably with the average 110, and Philadelphia's list of 402 is much less than the average 435. Washington lies between the two series, having a death list of 97 to compare with the average of 98.

Smaller cities which have a death

Smaller cities which have a death rate much larger than the average for the last five years include Cam-bridge, Dayton, Los Angeles, Dender, Milwaukee, Newark, New Orleans, and Syracuse.

Albert W. Fox Hears Lieut. Franklin Gray Fox Is Killed.

Albert W. Fox of this city, prominent newspaper man and chess player of national reputation, has received word of the death of his brother, Lieut. Franklin Gray Fox, in a cable communication from Gen. Pershing. Stating that a letter would follow im mediately, the cable gave only the hare fact that Lieut. Fox was in an airplane which caught fire and both he and the pilot were killed. Mr. Fox said that he assumed the accident had taken place between the front and headquarters where his brother was detailed as a member of frother was detailed Gen. Pershing's staff.

Gen. Pershing's staff.

Previous to his entrance into the service, Lieut. Fox was on the staff of the Philadelphia Evening Ledger. He was persistent in his efforts to get into the army from the outbreak of the war, but was turned down for the officers' training camp for enlistment and the draft on account of defective exesight. Finally he obtained a commission as second lieutenant on the mission as second lieutenant on the Another brother of Lieut. Fox is Charles James Fox, professor of in-ternational law at the University of Peiyang, Tientsin, China.
